

Welcome to Jacob's Range.

Taking its name from the first European settler in the area, Jacob Ellmoos. Jacob was a migrant from Denmark who arrived in Sydney in 1878 then sailed and fished his way down the coast.

During a fishing trip Jacob came across Sussex Inlet and was captivated by the great fishing and the beauty of the area, where he went on to establish his family in these beautiful natural surrounds.

Jacob's Range presents as the heart and soul of Sussex Inlet Golf Village. It is the central hub for this new community with sprawling views out over the surrounding golf course and providing a convenient connection to Sussex Inlet Village.
